

Dimensions in Mathematics

WANTED! WRITERS FOR THE JOURNAL

- Do you have a great classroom idea?
- Do you have an interesting problem that you have used with your students?
- Do you have a presentation that you have made at this FCTM conference?
- Do you enjoy reading the articles when you receive your journal twice yearly?

YES!

Then consider writing an article for Dimensions in Mathematics, the journal of the Florida Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

DO

- Read articles in Dimensions for format and style.
- Focus on 1 or 2 major ideas.
- Use a conversational style.
- Capture the essence of the article within the 1st paragraph or two.
- Consider what you would need to try the ideas in your own classroom.
- Have someone read your paper and give some feedback.
- Ensure mathematical accuracy.

DON'T

- Write in a complex style.
- Use negative or stereotypical language.
- Be so general that someone could not replicate your classroom idea.
- Focus on mathematics that is not addressed in the K-12 curriculum.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

- Manuscripts should be double-spaced. Max length of 6 pages.
- Send manuscripts as attachments for Microsoft Word via E-mail or on a disk.
- Illustrations should be camera ready and saved in .gif or .jpg format.
- Include a short biographic statement about you and any co-authors.
- Include your E-mail address and a telephone number.
- Send your article to dimensions@tempest.coedu.usf.edu.
